When the detachment had proceeded about seven miles out and arrived opposite the residence of a well known and wealthy accessionist, signal guns were fired and repeated by certain of the inhabitants, whose names have been learned, and who will receive the attention they seek. Capi. Curry and his force pushed rapidly on for a mile, and then came up with three men on horseback. Taey were captured and then avowed that they were about going south to Join the rebel army. Whatever may be charged upon Major General Halleck in connection with that affair at Corinth, all parties admit that he is a man of brains—that he is immeasurably superior to the men whose names have been associated in popular talk, and we must say, in popular animadversion, with his. We are sure that he would not be at all complimented by assignment to the first place even, of by assignment to the first place even, of the triumvirate in which he has been made to play so conspicuous a part. It appears on inquiry that the surgeon general has ordered an abundance out that transportation has not been furnished. How many of these complaints are well founded, I am not in this lying world and at this distance from the army in a position to know with certainty. I do know however, that onne of these excuses are considered sufficient by the president, the secretary of war or Gen. Permit me to admonish the friends of the administration and the Union in the country that great efforts are being made to re-estal that the old Buchanan and Breckinridge D mocracy and break down Mr. Lincoln in hown-state, These efforts take all the various tapes that can be devised by the ingenious and unscrupations men who helped to foil the Buchanan administration in the power that administration which betrayed it country into the hands of trailors. Bewar and unserspanous lines who helped to loss the Buchasan administration into power; that administration which borrayed the country linto the hands of trailors. Beware of all the "dodges" that may be invented to get your votes away from the candidate: supporting the administration and the country in this time of its greatest peril. We have a State track to elect, and don't let that be overlocked by any divisions on other candidates. The effort is to "divide and conquer." Therefore, I say to the Republican, Union, loyal voters of Ogia, "forewared, forestrand." Let the glorious pressing of the country be upheld and maintained against all assaids, either open or covert, so that all the men who held and maintained against all assaults, either open or covert, so that all the man who voted for Mr. Lincoln for president can, after the election, point proudly to the record, and say that "\old Ogle" never falters. Very respectfully, your obedient servant, E. B. Wasmburke.

P. S.—Our friends should look particularly to their votes on the day of election, and see they have the right ticket.

[From the Richmond Examiner, Ooi. 18.]
Many anxious moments have passed since the commencement of the war. The fortunes of a nation have several times seemed to depend opon the turn of a single chance. Yet it is doubtful whether any period as yet occurred more burdened with suspense than the

A large portion of the Northern people evince the disposition for a return to the ordinary ideas of civilized society. If they can prove themselves sufficiently strong to secure their own safety, they will establish something line sane politics is the Northern States, and render their government amenable to the laws of reason. Under those conditions it is possible to see a termination to that carrival of the devil now in full blast over the North American continent. But if the movement is shortly rushed out, measures will certainly be taken by the abolithouls tyramy to prevent a recurrance of such meanage to their power by measures like those through which the leaders of

This is the matter to be decided at the next elections in New York and other Northern States, now close at band. If the men whose bold attempt to recover the ordinary liberties of an Anglo Saxon people can elect their candidates, and so establish the fact that they en stitute a majority, the tyranny at Washington will be rapidly reduced to insignificance. We know how quickly the mass of the people in the Northern States, and indeed every where the northern States, and the candidates who were wont to vote for Gerritt Smith and Garrison in the old elections of the United States. A reaction of public opinion, as irresistible as the tide of the fea, would be swithly commenced; the principles on which American government is founded would reappear, and the instincts which have animated the race, with rare and temporary exceptions for a full shousand years, would reaume their sway over the conduct of the mation. Them, and then only, will it be possible to stop the forcestermination to an ordinary lease of arms.

It is difficult to believe that the majority of a people approng from free nations, and having at least a large admixture of Anglo Saxon blood, and recould not proposed the forcestermination to an ordinary lease of arms.

It is difficult to believe that the majority of a people approng from free nations, and thaving at least a large admixture of Anglo Saxon blood, can be recolled by the conduction of the war abroad, such as the subjects o bably there before this time.

Treason Talked Boldly. The Democratic meeting at Bryan Hall on laturday night was almost a total failure. The strond advertised in the Tory Organ, Dick Merrick and "Hove in" Sherman did the talking. "Hove in," stronge as it may appear, made a speech, chiefly devoted to attacking only write it out, however, we should be pleased to publish it verbatim from the which he had rehearsed under the utorship of Story, and to so far lose all sense of patriotism as to declare that "the Union was about played on," and to encourage tr-ason openly at the bidding of his mesters. Usconsciously he has settled his doom. No loyel man self-

Dick Merrick followed in another treason Administration upon all sides. He unblush-ingly declared himself the opponent of the Administration and of Abraham Lincoln; proclaimed the Union cause lost; lauded the who were present with fighting for pay : exressed no sympathy with Union troops; suded Buell and left an easy and open infor

LAW INFELLIGENCE,

Progress of the Burch Case.

Uncred States Cincuit Count—Before Hon. Thomas Drummond.—The case of Burch vs. Burch and Dexter, was Saturday morning called up for argument, the entire session of Friday having been spent in reading the pleadings and proofs. Mr. Ayer opened the argument on the part of the complainant and occupied the whole of the day. Many points were presented said a number of authorities read. The points made were urged with great force and, were principally that the executors had no power to embank or continue the funsis of the estate in the banking business, under the relations existing between the parties at the time of Thos. Burch's death, the partnership relation having been dissolved by agreement of parties, as well as by the death of the testator. It was also insisted, as a matter of fact, that the executifix and executors never executed the power of discretion provided for in the will; that I. H. Burch had the business of the bouse entirely under his own control; the house entirely under his own control; that his statements to the testa ora of the cituation and condition of the affairs of the bank, as well as to the cratrix, since the teatstors, decayes, were entirely,different from what he now urges as true; that the assignment was made to relieve himself from enharmsement unconnected with the business of the bank, and that he never claimed to the executors of the estate, that the caise of inheir testator was interested in his business or liable for the debts therein contracted until his private purposes required it. The case is still on trial and will probably occupy at least one day more. situation and condition of the affairs of the the candidates again got into the enclosure, and had to be cleaned out again.

THE SERGHANTS AT-ARMS CLEAR OUT THE CANDIDATES.

Upon motion, a Committee on Credentials, of forty, one from each town and one from each ward, was appointed; the committee was then reduced to fifteen and then to also. The retirement of the committee was then reduced to fifteen and then to also. The retirement of the committee was the signal for the incoming of candidates. The mild little man in the chair pathetically begged that they would go out, and, not having a gavel, rapped with an ink bottle, which only caused another influx of fresh candidates from the Tenth Ward. At last, Pall Hoyne and Mr. Patterson, not the man who was strack, were appointed Sergeants-Arms to clear them out. They were all got out in good style, except a little yellow dog, which bothered Phil. Hoyne some, and was only ejected after a long chase and some detriment to Phil's tousers.

A speck of War.

From the Tenth Ward, two Martin Caseya made their appearance and claimed seats. Deany Coughtin esponsed the canse of one and Tim Finnery the cause of the other, and both of them in.

DIDN'T DARE TO SHOW THEIR HANDS.

To make shem show their hands, a motion was offered that all nominations be made ever ever, and not by ballot, when a general row-ensued. The question was put amid a Babylonian din, and the whole outside crowd voted with the delegates. This was a little more than even the Democracy could stand, and the vote was taken over by voice, resulting in the loss of the motion. THE CANDIDATES IN AGAIN.

were on their feet at once clamoring to be leard, and every conceivable noise was made by the various speakers to attract the attention of the chair. At this juncture a delegate in a loud and shrill tone proposed three cheers for Rose, which were given, accompanied with the moet unearthy yelling and whooping from the opposition, when, the contusion becoming worse conjounded, the chair managed to make himself partially heard, and after a score of attempts at last succeeded in restoring comparative order. He then stated in emphatic terms that unless order was preserved, the chair would at once vacate.

that unless order was preserved, the chair would at once vacate.

COULDN'T SWALLOW LILL.

An individual from West Chicago moninated Wm, Lull for Storiff. A variety of sounds followed this announcement, such as "That dog won't bite," "Dead cock in the pit," "All of the same breed," etc., etc.

Mr. Canifeld moved that no vote should be taken until every gentleman was cleared out of the bar.

The chair declared the motion carried, whereupon "Dinney Cougolin of the Tisth," moved to amend by passing the hat around for the votes. (Langhler.)

ERTRING DELECATES.

Once more there was a fair resemblance to Bedism manifested, and quiet was not restored until the lak bottle had been broken by the chair in the value undeavor to reduce the mass to something like order. At last, Mr. Canifield, who for several minutes had been graticulating furiously, obtained a hearing. He said:

On Thursday evening there will be an exhibition or antional and statuary tableaux, and by special request, the pationime ballad of "Anid Robin Gray" will be given with appropriate costumes and manse. A capital evening's entertainment.

The Festival will close with a grand costume concert, which promises to be a most trilliant affair. It will be under the same management as that given a year ago, which proved so complete a success. The present concert is being arranged less hastily, with a great acquisition of marical talent, and will unsoubtedly greatly surpass that of last year. There will be songs, balled, selections from opera, accepts from Stradella, Sommanbul, Maritans, &c. &c., which are in active preparation. A fine occleates and several of the rest instrumentalists, together with the best vocal talent of the city are engaged for the occasion.

With most of the bankers the demand for money continues active. The season is drawing rapidly to a close and operators are anxious to send forward all the produce they can. He rebel journals give us a batch of Buthern news. An unsuccessful Federal novement is reported in Gen. Mischell's department. The North Carolina Executive is out in an appeal for contributions in sid of suffering secoch troops. The Richmond papers speak of a return of the rubal samy to Maryland, and the falling back of our army, a tale cylidently for home consumption. From the Gulf Department, the news is negatively important. Mobile is not yet attacked. Farragut has not yet received his orders.

From the West the dispatches indicate the gative preparation. Gen. Rose range taly active preparation. Gen. Roses less route to repair the damages cause knaves and cowards, Don Carlos Madow work shead, and near at hand.

Will come in a few days' time. The S
Louis levee has been visited by a dissipation of the stroyang several steamh at a that department no news of important seported. By the malls we have seems which took like the closing of I Judian war in Minnesots.

From our own State Capital we has further and continued hints of machinism of the Torica which the loyal men

The order of t War Department is promulgated in the State allowing volunteers to callet as relate. This same order has been rescind in its application to the army in Virgina there working mischief and demonstration.

If the report we publish from the Mato Independent be reliable, the Inwar is over in Mioneseta, and the reliable are far enough a way from the vicinity the settlements, to set at rest all flears they return again. Their punishment come later and sure enough in the flar reliations of the Federal Government without the weakest and the most romal is of Secessia. A few meanied companies be all that is necessary to secure peace safety to the involving and three Minnes herself will be glad to furnish. Let us be no waste of time in recalling the bulk of Gen.
